

Come and spend One Hour with Steve Butler, “Mr. 401(k)”

Learn about the DOL Fee Disclosure Law and its affect on you and your participants

Learn about

- What Regulation 408(b)(2) means to you as a plan sponsor
- The types of fees and expenses that providers are charging for plan investments and transactions
- The difference between pro-rata and per capita charges
Who pays the biggest share?
- The timing of fee disclosures to participants
- The impact of fees on participant accounts and the money they will have at retirement

JOIN US FOR AN INTERESTING AND INFORMATIVE HOUR

Tuesday, December 6, 2011

12:00 – 1:00 pm

Lunch will be served

Pension Dynamics Corporation Offices

2300 Contra Costa Blvd., Suite 400

Pleasant Hill, CA

Space is limited. Reserve your space today by calling Jacquie Girdler at 925.956.0505, ext 233 or via email at jgirdler@pensiondynamics.com

About Steve Butler . . . Steve Butler is a nationally renowned author and expert on retirement plans. He has testified twice in Washington at Congressional and Labor Department hearings and has appeared on C-SPAN as well as the CBS News with Dan Rather. His cover article in MONEY was entitled, “Beware Retirement Plan Rip-off”. Both the WSJ and the NY Times have featured his “Butler Index” on 401(k) retirement plan costs. For the past 10 years he has written a weekly financial column for Knight Ridder newspapers.